La Font D'en Carros is a very pretty Spanish town near Oliva and Gandia. Featured on the TV program A Place in The Sun several times it is popular and safe with all amenities for all year living. This house is stunning. No work required, character, roof terrace, 3 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms and viewing recommended.

The approach to the house is via a typical Spanish street and main door leading into the sitting room.

Sitting room with exposed timber beams, window and wall lighting.

Dining room with window, stairs to the first floor, lighting and access directly to the kitchen.

Kitchen with a range of base and wall units, fitted oven, hob and extractor, wood burner and a window.

Downstairs shower room with a shower cubicle, wash basin, W.C and lighting.

Hallway with understairs storage and washing machine. Stairs leading to bedroom 3.

Bedroom 3 with a window and wardrobe. A nice double bedroom which would be perfect for an older child or if you want to work from home. This has its own staircase and is separate from the other two bedrooms.

Dining room stairs leading to the main landing. Landing with space for chairs and a small table, stairs to the roof terrace and doors off to:

Bedroom 1 is a lovely main bedroom with a window, lighting and an ensuite.

Ensuite with a bath, W.C, bidet, wash basin and a window.

Bedroom 2 is another double bedroom with a window and lighting.

Roof terrace is really beautiful with an awning, views towards the mountains, space for sunbathing, dining and a BBQ area. Very sunny position.

Please do not miss this opportunity to buy a house with character, charm and in a lovely position in this Spanish town.

Beaches are a 15 minute drive away, locally there are supermarkets, bars, restaurants, beautiful walking routes, cycling routes and this is a friendly town.

1 hour to Valencia airport and 1 hour 15 to Alicante airport. There is a bus to Gandia and you can catch a train to Valencia from Gandia. Very well connected.

Oliva Nova Golf course is a short drive away along with the equestrian centre.
